PARTNERSHIP FOR PUBLIC SERVICE APPLAUDS HOUSE FOR PASSING OF LEGISLATION TO ENCOURAGE TELEWORK IN THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

WASHINGTON – Partnership for Public Service President and CEO Max Stier released the following statement on the House passage of the Telework Enhancement Act of 2010 (HR 1722):

“In a time when the federal government is under pressure to cut spending and work more efficiently, we are confident that this legislation will not only save the government money, but will promote increased productivity in the federal workforce.

We applaud Representatives John Sarbanes (D-Md.), Frank Wolf (R-Va.) and Gerry Connolly (D-Va.) for their leadership in championing this legislation. Telework is an important tool for an effective government and a necessary policy to ensure continuity of operations during a crisis.”

The Partnership for Public Service works to revitalize the federal government by inspiring a new generation to serve and by transforming the way government works. Visit www.ourpublicservice.org for more information.
