Police bust Sterling massage parlor

Thursday, Apr. 29 by Jana Wagoner | 0 comments | Email this story

Nine people were arrested April 27 in connection with a search at a Sterling massage parlor that was deemed a bawdy place.

After a six-month investigation, the Loudoun County Sheriff's Office searched Green Therapy in the 21100 block of Whitfield Place in Cascades at about 6 p.m., spokesman Kraig Troxell said.

The business's owner, Mi J. Kwon, 41, of Potomac Falls, was charged with maintaining a bawdy place and allowing massages to be performed without a valid permit, Troxell said.

The following people were charged with frequenting a bawdy place:

Jason D. Cienfuegos, 26, of Sterling

Bradley S. Cleg, 23, of Frederick, Md.

Jason R. Molina-Garcia, 19, of Herndon

Ravi K. Gadap, 34, of Reston

Hassan Malik, 32, of Reston

In addition, two female employees, Min H. Sweeny, 40, of Georgia and Jung S. Choi, 35, of North Carolina were charged with performing massages without a valid permit, Troxell said.

A third female employee, Seon H. Wolf, 43, was charged with willfully placing a hand or hands upon, touch with any part of the body, fondle in any manner or massage a sexual or genital part of any other person, Troxell said.

The Loudoun County Sheriff's Office Vice-Narcotics unit continues to investigate the activities of the business.
